

Bethesda, Ohio

On February 1, brother W. A. Welty began a series of revival meetings, continuing until the 20. Owing to the very bad weather and sickness, the congregations were small. One precious soul, an aged grand-mother confessed Christ, and was baptized. May she ever follow the loving Savior. Brother Welty begins services at Bryan this evening. May the Father bless his labor.

We are still alive in God's vineyard at this place. Just closed a series of meetings, with but one conversion. The interest was good and the members greatly encouraged. There is one thing that I am very sorry to speak of, and that is the losing of our beloved pastor, Brother Welty, but we hope our loss will be his new field's eternal gain, and as we will soon be without a pastor, the undersigned committee would be very glad to correspond with any minister of the Brethren church that desires employment. There are certainly some that have no work. Let us hear from you.

Pittsburgh Echoes

As we have a few spare moments we will endeavor to collect a few of our rambling thoughts and dump them out in writing.

Our Revival. Our revival was in progress a little over three weeks. We had thirteen confessions, all adults but one. We baptized eight of them, reclaimed one, leaving four to be received yet. As Brother Bowman said recently in the EVANGELIST, in speaking of his revival in Philadelphia, "We never expect many conversions during revival here as it is not at all as in the country. It is almost impossible to get sinners out thro the week." So we find the same true in this city, although we had very good attendance and the Lord blest us in our work. He is blessing us spiritually, numerically, financially, and socially.

Here Another Year. A few weeks ago the church gave us a unanimous call to labor with them the coming year. We cheerfully accept the call as the Lord blest our labors together in the past and we pray for the continuation of his blessings.

Tea Social. On Washington's birthday we held a Martha Washington tea social. Tho the weather was unpleasant we had a splendid attendance and the treasurer's pockets were heavier than before.

State Conference. Our next State Conference will be held here in June. We will endeavor by God's help to make it one of the best ever held in the state of Pennsylvania, to do this we need the hearty cooperation of the ministers and members in our sister churches of the state. See our notice elsewhere. Don't wait until the last moments to send in suggestions, but now is the time. It will be impossible for us to consider them if sent in too late. Come now, brethren, help us.
